MILLMAN, Special Master

DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On _____, the parties filed the attached stipulation in which they agreed to settle this case and described the settlement terms. Petitioner alleges that he suffered from Atypical Measles Syndrome that was caused in fact by his _____ receipt of Measles-Mumps-Rubella (“MMR”) vaccine. Petitioner further alleges that he experienced the residual effects of this injury for more than six months. Respondent denies that petitioner’s Atypical Measles Syndrome or any other injury or condition was caused in fact by MMR vaccine. Nonetheless, the parties agreed to resolve this matter informally.

The court finds the terms to be reasonable, hereby adopts the parties' stipulation, and awards compensation in the amount and on the terms set forth therein. Pursuant to the stipulation, the court awards a lump sum of $100,000.00, representing compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). The award shall be in the form of a check made payable to petitioner;

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
